CIVIL ACTION NO.

COMPLAINT

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. Plaintiffs seek monetary and injunctive relief against Defendants for numerous causes of action, including but not limited to, (i) trademark counterfeiting, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114; (ii) trademark infringement, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114; (iii) false descriptions/false designations of origin, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125; and (iv) common law trademark infringement and unfair competition.

2. Certain areas of New York City have long been major distribution hubs for counterfeit goods that are sold throughout the United States. Wholesale and retail sales of counterfeit goods occur frequently and regularly from locations around the city. Plaintiffs in this case, and trademark holders in general, have been plagued by the sale and distribution of counterfeit goods at locations all over New York City for years. To combat this illegal activity and protect their world-famous and valuable names, reputations, and trademarks, Plaintiffs have, at great expense, commenced and led enforcement efforts in and around New York City. Plaintiffs regularly work with law enforcement in operations against the individuals and entities selling counterfeit goods bearing its trademarks. Arrests for trademark counterfeiting have been made routinely by the New York City Police Department and by other agencies. The Mayor's Office of Special Enforcement for the City of New York has conducted numerous enforcement operations against the sellers of counterfeit goods.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. These claims arise under the Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., particularly under 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1). This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action which relate to trademark counterfeiting and infringement, dilution and false designations of origin and false descriptions pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338 and 15 U.S.C. § 1121.

4. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the claims in this Complaint which arise under state statutory and common law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a), since the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

5. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391, because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims alleged by Plaintiffs occurred within New York County in New York State.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING
15 U.S.C §1114

60. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations of the previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

61. Defendants have used spurious designations that are identical with, or substantially indistinguishable from, Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks on goods covered by registrations for Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks.

62. Defendants are intentionally and willfully using these spurious designations knowing they are counterfeit in connection with the advertising, sale, offering for sale and distribution of counterfeit goods for their own personal financial gain and such intentional and willful conduct by the Defendants makes this an exceptional case.

63. Defendants' use of the Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks to advertise, offer for sale, sell and distribute Defendants' counterfeit products was and is without the consent of Plaintiffs.

64. Defendants' unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks on and in connection with the advertising and sale of counterfeit goods constitutes Defendants' use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks in commerce.

65. Defendants' unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks as set forth above is likely to:

- (a) cause confusion, mistake and deception;
- (b) cause the public to believe that Defendants' counterfeit products are the same as Plaintiffs' products and/or that Defendants are authorized, sponsored or approved by Plaintiffs or that Defendants are affiliated, connected or associated with or in some way related to Plaintiffs; and
- (c) result in Defendants unfairly benefiting from Plaintiffs' advertising and promotion and profiting from the reputation of Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks all to the substantial and irreparable injury of the public, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks and the substantial goodwill represented thereby.

66. Defendants' acts as aforesaid constitute trademark counterfeiting in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1114.

67. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law and have suffered and continue to suffer irreparable harm and damage as a result of Defendants' acts as aforesaid in an amount not thus far determined but believed to be in excess of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per Plaintiff.

69. Upon information and belief, Defendants have obtained gains, profits and advantages as a result of their wrongful acts in an amount thus far not determined but believed to be in excess of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per Plaintiff.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT
15 U.S.C. §1114

70. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations of the previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

71. Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks are fanciful and arbitrary and are associated in the mind of the public with Plaintiffs.

72. Based on Plaintiffs' extensive advertising, sales and the wide popularity of Plaintiffs' products, Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks have acquired secondary meaning so that any product and advertisement bearing such trademarks is immediately associated by purchasers and the public as being a product and affiliate of Plaintiffs.

73. Defendants use Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks in connection with Defendants' sale, distribution and advertising of their counterfeit and infringing goods.

74. Defendants' activities as aforesaid constitute Defendants' use in commerce of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks.

75. Defendants have used Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks without Plaintiffs' consent or authorization. Defendants' use, including the sale and distribution of infringing products in interstate commerce, is likely to cause confusion and mistake in the minds of the public, leading the public to believe that Defendants' products emanate or originate from Plaintiffs, or that Plaintiffs have approved, sponsored or otherwise associated themselves with Defendants, which is untrue.

76. Defendants have intentionally used Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of counterfeit goods, knowing they are the exclusive property of Plaintiffs.

77. Defendants' conduct is intended to exploit the goodwill and reputation associated with Plaintiffs' Registered Trademarks.

78. Plaintiffs have no control over the quality of Defendants' counterfeit merchandise. Because of the very real likelihood of confusion as to the source of Defendants' products, Plaintiffs' reputation and valuable goodwill in the Trademarks is at the mercy of Defendants' unscrupulous tactics.

79. Defendants' activities as aforesaid create the false and misleading impression that Defendants are sanctioned, assigned or authorized by Plaintiffs to use Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks to advertise, manufacture, distribute, appraise, offer for sale or sell counterfeit products bearing Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks when Defendants are not so authorized.

80. Defendants engage in the aforementioned activity with the intent to confuse and deceive consumers into believing that Defendants and the goods they sell are in some way sponsored by, affiliated or associated with Plaintiffs when the Defendants are not.

81. Defendants' unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks as set forth above has resulted in Defendants unfairly benefiting from Plaintiffs' advertising and promotion and profiting from Plaintiffs' reputation and Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks, to the substantial and irreparable injury of the public, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks and the substantial goodwill represented thereby.

82. Defendants' aforesaid acts constitute trademark infringement in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1114.

83. Defendants' acts have caused, and will continue to cause, great and irreparable injury to Plaintiffs, and unless such acts are restrained by this Court, they will continue, thereby causing Plaintiffs to continue to suffer great and irreparable injury. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

84. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants' infringement is both intentional and egregious.

85. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law and are suffering irreparable harm and damage as a result of the aforesaid acts of Defendants in an amount thus far not determined but believed to be in excess of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per Plaintiff.

86. Upon information and belief, Defendants have obtained gains, profits and advantages as a result of their wrongful acts in an amount thus far not determined but believed to be in excess of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per Plaintiff.

88. Defendants have, in connection with their goods, used in commerce, and continue to use in commerce, Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks.

89. Defendants have affixed, applied and used in connection with their sale of goods, false designations of origin and false and misleading descriptions and representations, including

Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks, which tend falsely to describe the origin, sponsorship, association or approval by Plaintiffs of the goods sold by the Defendants.

90. Defendants use one or more of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks with full knowledge of the falsity of such designations of origin, descriptions and representations, all to the detriment of Plaintiffs.

91. Defendants' use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks on the counterfeit goods constitutes false descriptions and representations tending to falsely describe or represent Defendants and Defendants' products as being authorized, sponsored, affiliated or associated with Plaintiffs.

92. Defendants use one or more of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks on counterfeit goods with the express intent to cause confusion and mistake, to deceive and mislead the purchasing public, to trade upon the high quality reputation of Plaintiffs and to improperly appropriate to themselves the valuable trademark rights of Plaintiffs.

93. Defendants' aforesaid acts constitute the use in commerce of false designations of origin and false and/or misleading descriptions or representations, tending to falsely or misleadingly describe and/or represent Defendants' products as those of Plaintiffs in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

94. Defendants' wrongful acts will continue unless enjoined by this Court.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FEDERAL TRADEMARK DILUTION
15 U.S.C. §1125(c)

98. Plaintiffs are the exclusive owners of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks listed on Exhibit A attached hereto.

99. Defendants' use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks on the counterfeit goods they sell constitutes Defendants' commercial use in commerce of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks.

100. Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks have been used for years, and in some instances decades, and are so globally recognized and associated with Plaintiffs that they are entitled to be recognized as famous and distinctive under 15 U.S.C. §1125(c).

101. Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks have come to have a secondary meaning indicative of origin, relationship, sponsorship and/or association with the Plaintiffs and its distinctive reputation for high quality. The purchasing public is likely to attribute to Plaintiffs, Defendants' use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks as a source of origin, authorization and/or sponsorship for the products Defendants sell and further, purchase Defendants' products in the erroneous belief that Defendants are associated with, sponsored by or affiliated with Plaintiffs, when Defendants are not.

102. Plaintiffs have not authorized or licensed the use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks to Defendants.

103. Defendants' unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks in their marketing, sale and distribution of counterfeit products are diluting the distinctive quality of Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks and the goodwill associated with them in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C § 1125(c).

104. Such conduct has injured Plaintiffs and said injury will continue unless the Court enjoins Defendants from committing further wrongful acts.

105. Upon information and belief, Defendants intentionally and willfully utilized Plaintiffs' Federally Registered Trademarks and traded on Plaintiffs' reputation and goodwill.

106. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law and are suffering irreparable harm and damage as a result of the aforesaid acts of Defendants in an amount thus far not determined but believed to be in excess of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per Plaintiff.

107. Upon information and belief, Defendants have obtained gains, profits and advantages as a result of their wrongful acts in an amount thus far not determined but believed to be in excess of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per Plaintiff.
